The alleged infringement of Customs regulations took place as far back as the 10th May, 1887, and was brought to the notice of Sir John Waleham on the 10th by the agents of the steamer, but after a lapse of nearly four years.

toth on the part of their agents abroad and on the part of the directors at home! I have, therefore, very great pleasure indeed in proposing a very cordial vote of thanks to the Chairman and his colleagues on the Board.

MR. HUTTON—I second that.

The resolution was carried.

The CHAIRMAN—I thank you very much, gentlemen, on behalf of my co-directors as well as on my own part, for the kind way in which you have received the remarks of my friend Mr. Reid. It is quite true that during the past 12 months there have been difficulties in connection the transshipment of goods, which are largely of foreign origin or destination, and can in no way be looked on as British merchandise. If he had checked the Chinese trade returns with those of the United Kingdom and India he would have found that the trade of the United Kingdom with China and Hongkong in 1890 accounted for only 28 per cent. of the foreign trade of China, and the trade of India in 1889 for only 22 per cent. The trade of the remainder of our colonies and possessions with China and Hongkong amounts to about 5 per cent., making the total trade of the British
